ABSTRACT

Names and general subject area knowledge of 104 members of library staffs in St. Joseph County, Indiana are presented. The participants are grouped under subject areas, e.g., antiques, architecture, golf, Hawaii, health foods, Michigan history, needlework, and Zurich, and coded according to the degree and type of knowledge they possess. This is designed to serve as a reference resource for all libraries in the area. (MBR)

PURPOSE I hope that this listing of subjects and names will be used as a reference resource for all libraries in St. Joseph County, Indiana. The various administrators have given permission for their staffs to participate in this project by filling out the questionnaires and by being available for brief phone contacts during working hours.

THANKS Thanks to Donna Harlan, Head Librarian, IUSB, for her encouragement and constant help on this project, and also for her encouraging me to apply to ALSA for the financial aid that paid for the three P's of this project: Paper, Printing, and Postage. I thank Don E. Wright, Evanston Public Library, for his support of this project concept in his seminar that we shared at Western Michigan University. I thank Dr. Robert Ballard, Western Michigan University School of Librarianship, for his support of this project as my faculty advisor for independent study and for his faith in the total projects' usefullness. Mary Peters, Notre Dame Libraries, contributed many constructive comments and editorial aids in organizing the final results, for which I am indeed grateful. Final thanks go to Betsy Howard of the South Bend Public Library for her lively illustrations which have done wonders to this listing of words.

The BLAME Now I know that I should have had the number code ready and enclosed it with the questionnaire, so that every person could have coded their own skill level. Since I did not have it ready, I myself made the decision in coding. So, If I put a person too low or high, or mis-spelled the name, please report errors to Dennis C. Lawson, Plymouth Public Library, ALSA Area 2 representative, who now has possession of the paperwork of this project. If use warrants another distribution of questionnaires and printing of results, reported mistakes will be corrected.
